

I do not want the present restrictions on how many news media outlets one company can own relaxed. It would be harmful to a democratically run nation to do so. I am for a diverse and independent press. Eliminating such rules as have been in place since the 1940's would not benefit the public because it would restrict the news disseminating to a powerful few.